Geraldine Aron**

Geraldine Aron was born in Galway but spent most of her adult life in Zambia, Zimbabwe and South Africa. She is the author of twelve plays produced for television and radio, and 'Toscanini' a screenplay directed by Franco Zeffirelli.

Her hugely acclaimed one-woman show 'My Brilliant Divorce', has been performed all over the world and was nominated for an Olivier Award in 2004. She is also the past winner of two Edinburgh Fringe Firsts, for 'Bar and Ger' and 'A Galway Girl' respectively.

Jenny Dunnet ALAM. LLAM.
Licentiate of the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art

Jenny is a speech and drama teacher, and is no stranger to Nairobi audiences. She has acted in plays in Britain, Egypt and Nairobi and is Chairman of Nairobi City Players and has performed with the Phoenix Players. In Nairobi she has appeared in:

*'Hay Fever' 'Dancing at Lughnasa'
'Blood Brothers' 'The Winslow Boy'
'The Importance of Being Ernest'
'Talking Heads' and 'Under Milk Wood', also many other entertainments.*

Jenny has now turned her hand to directing and in 2009 directed the much acclaimed 'Under Milk Wood' in which her actor son came from London to play 'The Narrator' (the leading role). This year she directed the very successful 'Billy Liar'.

In 1997, under the banner of Nairobi City Players, she was instrumental, with Jacqui Mason and Frances Cattermole, in starting Dinner Theatre and other theatre entertainment in Muthaiga Country Club, and this has continued to this day!

NAIROBI CITY PLAYERS would like to thank

Muthaiga Country Club construction and technical staff, and the catering and office staff for their help in bringing this play to MCC.
